

Gender Award

of the Faculty of Agricultural and Nutritional Sciences

You have examined a gender aspect more closely in your bachelor's or master's thesis? With your thesis you contribute to gender research in your subject or there is a gender inequality within the student body in your subject?

Then apply for the AEF Gender Award!

Prize money for a Bachelor's thesis: 250 Euro

Prize money for a Master's thesis: 500 Euro

Send a short summary of your thesis, or alternatively a short field report (briefly outlining your own gender inequality in the department), the thesis itself including grade and a signed letter of recommendation from the supervising professor or co-supervisor to our faculty's gender equality team gleichstellung@aef.uni-kiel.de by September 30, 2024.

Theses completed after October 1, 2023 may be submitted.
